

Keynote Speaker
Joe Du Fore

Joe Du Fore, founder of the Exceptional Learning Academy and educational pioneer now owner of both Newline Education and Digital Publishing House LLC, started his educational career as a Biology and Mathematics teacher. He moved on to be a Professor of Education and Executive Director of the Instructional Design Center at Wisconsin Lutheran College. He now devotes all of his time to writing, juggling IT hazards, and promoting digital citizenship, literacy, immersion and creativity through digital infusion and understanding.

This TEDx presenter, self-inflicted techno-twerp, educational entrepreneur, and subpar beatboxer, spends his time consulting, motivational speaking, and helping teachers, schools and communities identify ways to best incorporate technology.
