4. Membership: The membership drive is coming up and it will be time to renew for 2019. Look for an email at the beginning of December with the membership form. We are trying to offer new resources to our members, like the monthly newsletter, which includes updates, important news articles, upcoming events, and more. We hope that you have found the first two editions informative and look for the next one to be sent out in November.

5. Spring 2019 and OBT Ceremony: We are excited to be returning to Columbia at the Courtyard by Marriott for our Spring Conference and OBT Award Luncheon. The conference is scheduled for March 25-27, 2019, with the OBT Awards taking place on Wednesday, March 27th. The Outstanding Beginning Teacher Nomination form is now on our website and the deadline for submission is December 14th. The keynote will be Marilyn Cochran-Smith and Beth Davey, the 2018 Teacher of the Year will be speaking at the OBT Luncheon.

6. PayPal: Conference registrations paid with a credit card went from 37% in the Spring, to 57% in the Fall. We are glad that many are using this convenience and hope that it makes the registration process easier for our members.

7. Survey: A survey will be sent out right after the conference and we appreciate the feedback that we receive from you. The comments/ suggestions will help us make the next conference even better. Thank you for taking the time to complete the survey!
